

Q & A: Bellwood Antis WW2 Honor Roll

What was the Bellwood Antis WW2 Honor Roll?

A temporary Honor Roll of those from B- A who served during WW2.

Where was the Bellwood Antis WW2 Honor Roll?

At 403 Main St (across from Irwins & barber shop). To the right you can barely see the old South Side School at the current fire station location.

Who was on the Bellwood Antis WW2 Honor Roll?

We have reproduced a list dated Sept, 1945 by the War Mothers.

Please send other names you think should be added to:

KSWW2IG@gmail.com (you may have to copy this into your e-mail)

Is there a major source of information about those on the list?

One of the goals of the Keystone WW2IG is to consolidate information about local individuals who served overseas and on the home front.

How can I help?

Assistance is needed to expand the accompanying short bios. This could be pictures, stories, etc. Discharge papers can be very helpful. We will scan your pictures for free. If we get enough requests, we will print copies on photo grade paper for a donation to cover costs.

I don't have any of the above. Is there any other way to help?

Short answer: YES - various ways to help. e-mail KSWW2IG@gmail.com
